22nd August 2022

To All MEDIA HOUSES,

PRESS STATEMENT

THE POSITION OF ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES IN EAST AFRICA (APSEA) ON PEACE AND RESPECT OF LAW DURING THE COUNTRY'S TRANSITION PERIOD.

Reference is made to the elections held on Tuesday 9th August 2022 and subsequent announcements by IEBC on the outcome of the presidential elections on 15th August 2022.

Considering the acknowledgement of supremacy of Almighty God in our Kenya Constitution 2010, we the Professionals in Kenya take this moment to emphasize the need for peace as we take part in the transition process in our country.

As we accord respect to our constitutionally elected leaders, we also take a moment to remember our fore fathers who in their heroic struggle bequeathed us this beautiful country.

We urge for a peaceful transition, legal and overall respect to our constitution at this moment of Presidential Petition.

Let us note that APSEA (The Association of Professional Societies in East Africa) is a joint Forum and an umbrella body of professionals associations established in 1961 comprising of a corporate membership of thirty two (32) Professional Associations from diverse professional disciplines which include; Law, Human resource, Records, Accounting, Medicine, Finance, Architecture, Survey, Planning, Engineering, Valuation, Geology, Food science and technology, Veterinary science and many more. APSEA has over 500,000 individual professionals.

We once again reiterate the need for Peace and Respect of Rule of law.

Mr. Felix Okatch, EBS

Chairman, Association of Professional Societies in East Africa (APSEA).
